Mrs. Paul Darrow of Silver Lake, Mass., was the guest last week of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Barrow.

Missionary Meeting.

The Women's Missionary society held a very interesting meeting at the home of Mrs. A. Tall-Hope, Saturday afternoon. The subject being Mission Work in Turkey Among the Armenians. At the social hour the hostesses served refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. N. L. Greig, Mrs. F. W. Bennett, Mrs. A. T. Hope and Miss Mary Kelley attended the Tenth-century conference at the Congregational church, Putnam, Tuesday.

Fred E. Miller is ill.

Tendered Farewell Reception.

A farewell reception was tendered the retiring pastor of the Congregational church, Rev. J. W. Wright, a good number of the village people attending. The entertainment committee presented a fine programme of musical selection and readings, they were greatly appreciated, each number meriting an encore. A pleasing feature was a reading from "The New Armenia," by Jacob Krikorian, an Armenian by birth. Following the programme, N. L. Greig, in a very pleasing manner, gave a reminiscence of Rev. Wright's three years' pastorate and in behalf of the many warm friends he made, presented him a purse of gold. Mr. Wright was surprised and deeply touched and responded with words of appreciation. The members of the Men's club served ice cream, cake and coffee.

Nine Persons Join Church.

Sunday at the Congregational church, Rev. J. W. Wright preached his farewell sermon, a splendid discourse. The music by the choir was fine. The sacrament of the Lord's supper was observed. Nine persons united with the church and received the rite of baptism.

Patients From the Colony Have a Sleigh Ride—Quartette Sings at the Evening Service.

Teachers say the sleighing since last Monday's snowstorm has been the best of this winter. Two large sleighs of patients at the Colony were given a joy-ride Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Clara Smith of Hartford returned home Saturday, after a week's visit at T. L. Garvey's.

Miss Maggie Moon of Warren, Mass., is the efficient helper of Mrs. Clara. Mr. Thompson, who returned from St. Joseph's hospital in Willimantic, a few weeks ago.

Mrs. E. P. Thompson visited her mother at the Johnson Memorial hospital Saturday. Miss Virginia Fowler is staying with Mrs. Jane Siedman, where she intends to remain until spring and then to return to her home in the peach orchard on the hill.

A mixed quartette rendered two fine selections in the evening service at Dunham Memorial church, Sunday.

A Tedium Trip. It was late home-coming for local high school couple, Windham High, Willimantic, Monday. The engine of the 4.15 train from the city broke down between South Coventry and Bartlett stations. Another engine had to come to the rescue, giving a long wait without supper to the passengers. The severe storm adding to their discomfort.

Mrs. Carl Hamerlin, who recently returned from St. Joseph's hospital, Willimantic is recovering but very slowly.

Mrs. David Copeland of Willimantic visited Mrs. William Corbett and Miss Maude Brigham Wednesday. Mrs. Samuel Austin has been confined to her home for several days.

Services at Colony. The semi-monthly service at the "Colony" will be conducted next Sunday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock by Rev. F. W. Klein.

Miss Doris Wilcox of Connstock Bridge is making a week's visit at the home of her aunt, Mrs. I. W. Botham. Lloyd T. Thompson of Warren, Mass., visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Thompson from Saturday to Tuesday last.

ROCKVILLE

The worst storm of the winter and the deepest snow has been experienced here this week.

The storm commenced Friday night with a few inches of snow which settled quite a little during Saturday as it continued to thaw though the sun did not shine.

Sunday it snowed gently all day and continued to thaw a little until night when it grew colder with a northeast wind and began to freeze.

Frozen snow continued to fall through the night and a good part of Sunday, forming a crust which made bad traveling.

J. Palmer Greene, who has been ill for the past three months has so much improved as to be able to get down stairs.

Wilfred Barber, who has been indisposed for a few days is better, so he is out again.

Mrs. Emory C. Kenyon was a guest of her mother at Woody Hill, one day last week.
